EMBD CapCo Ltd. Law Enforcement Requests Policy

Last Updated: September 2025

This Law Enforcement Requests Policy (“Policy”) explains how EMBD CapCo Ltd. (“EMBD”, “we”, “us”, “our”) responds to requests from law enforcement and regulatory authorities relating to information about users of our services (“Services”). We are committed to protecting the rights and privacy of our users while complying with our legal obligations.

1. Legal Requests

EMBD will only disclose user information in response to valid legal processes, such as:

- Court orders issued by a competent authority;
- Subpoenas, warrants, or other compulsory legal requests;
- Requests based on applicable laws in the British Virgin Islands or other relevant jurisdictions.

2. Required Information

All requests must:

- Be made in writing on official letterhead or through formal legal channels;
- Clearly identify the authority making the request;
- Specify the information sought and the legal basis for the request;
- Include sufficient detail for EMBD to locate the requested records.

3. Notice to Users

Unless legally prohibited, EMBD may notify affected users before disclosing their information. We reserve the right to challenge overly broad or unlawful requests.

4. International Requests

For requests from authorities outside the British Virgin Islands, EMBD requires that such requests be supported by mutual legal assistance treaties (MLATs) or other applicable international cooperation mechanisms.

5. Emergency Requests

In cases involving imminent risk of death or serious physical harm, EMBD may expedite the disclosure of limited information, provided the requesting authority submits a valid emergency request.
